

Houston-Galveston SAME Post WOTUS Workshop

Who: SAME Houston Galveston Post

What: Water of the US (WOTUS) Workshop

When: 12 SEP 2022, 8:30 AM-

Where: Junior League Houston

Why: Collaboration on current status of the Waters of the US (WOTUS) status; how federal agencies are implementing; how state and local government agencies balance responsible development, the environment, and impacts to all citizens; and what that means to the AEC industry

Sequence of Events

HCFCFD; Jonathan Holley; county best practices

USCG; John Ellis; ground water us and subsidence

5e; John Bloom on ENVISION; a possible framework

EPA; Randy Rush; WOTUS History and current status

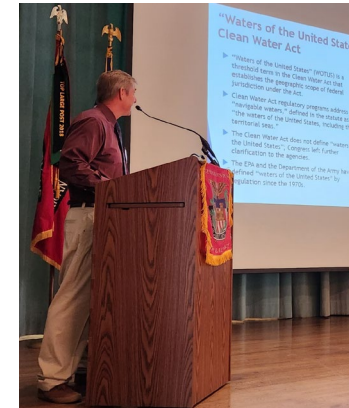

TxDOT; Susan Shuffield; state best practices

USACE; Kara Vick; definitions and permitting process

Roundtable discussion

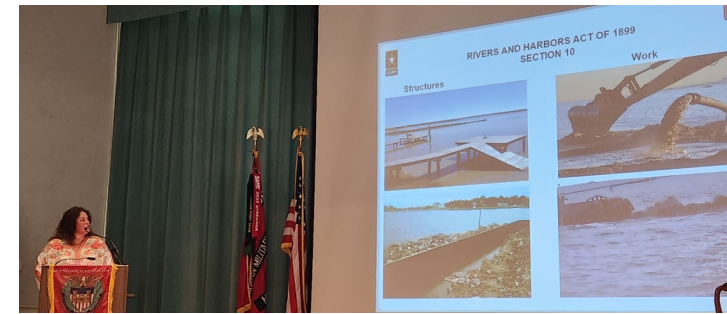

Karen Coopersmith introduces Jonathan Holley representing Harris County Flood Control District

Randy Rush; EPA and Jonathan Holley HCFCFD

John Ellis; USGS, provide a close to home example of subsidence and its link to ground water use

Ms Kara Vick provides an update on USACE permitting

The panel discusses their viewpoint on a question from the audience