HOST SUSTAINING MEMBER INFORMATION

We still have some luncheon meetings available for Sustaining Members to host. Hosting our monthly meetings is a great opportunity to put your firm in the limelight and showcase your firm's experience and abilities. If your firm is interested in hosting one of these meetings, please contact Charlie Settoon at (504) 889-0182.

We would like to thank all the Sustaining Member Firms who have hosted a monthly meeting in the past. If it has been a while since your firm hosted a meeting, you are welcome to host another meeting. Let's continue to show our support for the Louisiana Post through this great professional opportunity.

SPEAKER'S BIOGRAPHY

Colonel Michael Clancy

Commander & District Engineer, New Orleans District

Colonel Michael Clancy became the New Orleans District's 63rd commander and district engineer on June 21, 2016. On assuming command, he became responsible for one of the largest civil works programs in the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers at over $300 million annually. The New Orleans District includes 2,800 miles of navigable waterways – including five of the top fifteen ports in the nation, 1,300 miles of levees and floodwalls, 11 navigation locks, six major flood control structures, and other projects designed to create and protect coastal wetlands. Also under Colonel Clancy's management is the District's effort to reduce risk for South Louisiana by executing comprehensive and integrated flood control, ecosystem restoration, and hurricane and storm damage risk reduction projects.

Col. Clancy was commissioned in the U.S. Army in May 1993 and most recently served as the Director of Task Force 2010 in Afghanistan. Prior to that assignment, he was the Deputy Commander for the 1st Brigade Combat Team "Warriors", 10th Mountain Division and commanded the 7th Engineer Battalion, both at Fort Drum, NY.

His previous assignments include serving in all combat engineer officer positions from Platoon Leader through Battalion Commander including Command of the 7th Engineer Battalion & A Company, 41st Engineer Battalion both at Fort Drum, NY; service in the 12th, 168th, 41st, 365th(USAR), and 40th Combat Engineer Battalions; service as the Brigade Engineer for 1st Brigade, 10th Mountain Division & 2nd Brigade, 1st Armored Division; service as the Assistant Division Engineer for 1st Armored Division; and 3rd Corps Support Command Engineer. He has been deployed for 33 months to Iraq, 4 months to Qatar, and one month to Afghanistan.

Col. Clancy earned a Bachelor of Science in Engineering Management from the U.S. Military Academy-West Point, a Master of Science in Engineering Management from Missouri University of Science and Technology, a Master of Science in Civil Engineering from Columbia University, a Master of Arts in Strategy and is a registered Professional Civil Engineer.

Col. Clancy is a graduate of the U.S. Army War College, Ranger School, Airborne School, Air Assault School, Defense Acquisitions University, the Environmental Protection Authority's Watershed Academy and FEMA's Emergency Management Institute.

His awards and decorations include the Bronze Star with two oak leaf clusters, Defense Meritorious Service Medal, Meritorious Service Medal with five oak leaf clusters, Army Commendation Medal with 3 oak leaf clusters, Army Achievement Medal, and the Bronze Order of de Fluery Medal.

A native of City Island, The Bronx, New York, Col. Clancy is married to Lt. Col. (Ret.) Hailey Clancy, who teaches Chemistry at Loyola University in New Orleans.
