“Improving Cybersecurity and Safety in Smart Buildings and Infrastructure”

*HON Lucian Niemeyer, F SAME
CEO Building Cyber Security*

There has been an explosive growth of malware, ransomware, and even “killware” attacks spreading across all sectors of society. Federal and State agencies are developing policies and guidance for cyber protections in a full range of projects funded through the $1.2 Trillion Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act. The presentation covered the advancements being made in delivering the required security measures.
